

FIVE REASONS YOU WILL LOVE THIS UNIQUE MEMOIR

by Edeltraud F. Fellendorf

ISBN # 978-1-62024-835-5

Tate Publishing

"Every day, the vision of artists, the identity of peoples, and the very existence of history all threaten to disappear. Left alone, old buildings will crumble. Documents will disintegrate. The photographed faces will fade away."

-- The American Institute for Conservation of Historic and Artistic Works

1. It teaches history by preserving a life story.

History is becoming a lost subject amongst today's high school and college students. A 2012 survey posted on WhatWillTheyLearn.Com shows this alarming trend:

- Less than half of college graduates surveyed could identify the war in which the Battle of the Bulge occurred.
- Less than half of the college graduates surveyed could identify George Washington as the general at Yorktown.
- Only 20% could identify the "Father of the Constitution."

2. Well researched and sourced, making it authentic and credible.

- Written by an Army wife and mother of four

3. Illuminating and emotionally charged! You will be touched as the author experiences devastating losses, yet she will still inspire you with her grace.

4. Provides a rare glimpse of what Germany was like for children under the Third Reich, specifically girls.

- "Witness memoirs bear an awful burden, standing in for the thousands of memoirs that will never be written." Daniel Mendelsohn

5. Includes important life lessons for adults, young and old.